Tiered Gift Program

Gift giving is not an expense; it is an income investment and defense strategy.

We perfected the art of corporate gift giving by creating a strategic gifting program based on your profit tiers; highly valued clients, reliable clients, low revenue clients, executive workforce and remote staff. You will spend proportionately to the revenue received from or produced by your gift recipients; whether it be clients, staff, or business partners.

Our consultation is free and our results positively impact your revenue stream, bottom line, and workforce productivity.

TESTIMONIALS:

“I ordered the individual wrapped toffees for my ribbon cutting and had gift boxes made for other marketing uses. Not only is the toffee delicious, the presentation is professional and unique. In addition, the customer service is excellent. The Toffee Store is a great resource for B2B marketing” Leslie EB, Capstone Vision

“ I have worked with this company to provide business to business gifts for customers and referral partners. Their toffee is delicious and packaging is professionally done. I received great feedback!! Highly recommend partnering with The Toffee Store. Thanks Heidi!!” Mike Bash ore, Bashore StateFarm

“Your toffee is the absolute best! All the packages were received on time and with the greatest satisfaction! I loved the personal service, special touch and local delivery. All was a wonderful success and on short notice, too! The Toffee Store is the best and my go-to place for both business and personal gifts for the future! Thanks for the wonderful Toffee Store experience!” Kathleen Mielke-Weeks, Mielke & Weeks Psychological Services

“Heidi Paterson takes very scientific approach to corporate gift giving. Most businesses (myself included) really drop the ball when it comes to client or customer appreciation. Heidi’s methodology and solutions result in very positive outcomes, and her staff makes it easy. All I do is provide to them the name, address and message for the recipient and they do the rest. The gift is quickly shipped out with a personalized card, and they even sign it for me. It couldn’t be simpler. The best part though is my clients seem to always follow up with a thank you note or e-mail to me! They love Heidi’s toffee and the gift truly solidifies the relationship.” Andrew Blain, Next Level Consultants
